From Your Associational Missionary

I love Vacation Bible School! I have been involved with Vacation Bible School not only as a kid growing up but since 1984 have served as a director, teacher, or cheerleader! I remember one summer while serving as pastor of a church in TN, that I received a phone call from a lady who wanted to know the dates and times of our VBS. She ran an afternoon “daycare” and wanted to bring her kids to VBS. When I asked how many children she had who were 4 or older, she said 10! My first thought was that we were going to provide free childcare for 3 hours and she was still going to get paid for keeping them. But then another thought came to my mind—these kids are going to be exposed to the gospel for 3 hours every day! So instead of seeing it as “free childcare”, I began to see it as an incredible opportunity to share the gospel with some kids who had probably never heard the gospel. She brought those 10 kids every night to our church having the permission of every parent, and at the end of that week, 2 of those kids made a decision to accept Christ. When I called their parents after our VBS was over to let them know about their child’s decision, they let me know that their child had shared it with them and they would be talking with their pastor soon about it. I was glad to hear that! And even though we didn’t get any of these kids and their families, we knew that God had given us a unique opportunity to use VBS as an incredible outreach tool for our church.

This story came to my mind while reading a book by Landry Holmes entitled It’s Worth It: Uncovering How One Week Can Transform Your Church. He shared that the first VBS began in 1898 by Virginia Hawes, not in a church but in a rented beer parlor. She saw some of the misery of New York’s East Side, just a mile from her church and decided to do something about it. So she rented the beer parlor (it was closed during the day) because it was close to where the children were. They did not keep records the first year but on the first day of the second year they had 114 who attended. It definitely met a need in that community. Why do I share about VBS in March? Because we should already be getting ready for it! Many of our churches have already ordered their materials through our office (Thank You); 15 churches attended our Early Bird Clinic; and many are recruiting workers. But we also need to train each worker for your week of VBS. A new statistic I have just read in this book is that for every one VBS leader who is trained, there are 1.1 salvation decisions. Encourage every worker you have recruited to come Thursday April 16th to our Associational Clinic at 6:30 pm at Tabernacle. It will be a great night of training, and will help your leaders get ready for an incredible week of VBS in your church. Thank you for your support of our local Pregnancy Resource Center through Baby Bottle Boomerang. We have seen hundreds of bottles come through our office full of money for this great cause. Thank you for making a difference.

From the WMU

How much water do you drink per day! How much water do you use per day? I drink more water than anything else. It definitely quenches my thirst. According to the United States Geological Survey each person uses about 80-100 gallons of water per day. Have you considered what you would do if you had no clean water?

The missionaries featured in the February Mission Mosaic shared that providing water filters opens doors for them to introduce people to Jesus, the source of living water. Volunteers have helped set up a water tank for a school with no water. This was a concrete way the missionaries and the volunteers could show their love to the people in the villages while also telling them Jesus loves them.

WMU has a ministry to help provide clean water to missionaries, the people they serve, and mission teams. Pure Water, Pure Love provides water filters to missionaries. They also provide the people they serve with wells that offer clean water. PWPL also provides water filters to mission teams for use on short-term mission trips.

Throughout the world people face diseases or parasites from their water. Many carry heavy jugs for miles just to be sure their families have clean, healthy water. For others clean water is not available at all. With your help and the help of churches

Pure Water Pure Love provides thousands of water filters to missionary families and helps fund clean water projects.
