From Your Associational Missionary:

As I was reading Henry Blackaby’s devotional, Experiencing God, I came across these thoughts about our work. It definitely hit home with me. Let me share this devotional with you.

For the Lord Not Men

“And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men.” Colossians 3:23

“There is an important difference between doing something for people and doing something for God. God always deserves our best effort. People will disappoint us, betray us, neglect us, and mistreat us. Some will constantly ask for what we can give while offering nothing in return. From our human perspective, these people deserve our minimal effort at best. What then should motivate us to serve people, except our love for God? God deserves our love, and He demands that we love others in the same way He does. We are to love our spouses, not as they deserve, but as God commands (Eph. 5:22-33). We are to treat our friends, not as they treat us, but as Christ loves (John 13:1). We are to labor at our jobs, not in proportion to the way our employer treats us, but according to the way God treats us. God is the One we serve (Eph. 6:5).

Mediocrity and laziness have no place in the Christian’s life. Christians must maintain integrity at home and in the workplace. Working for God, as opposed to working for other people, changes our perspective as we view our endeavors in light of what He has done for us. Our toil then becomes an offering to God. We not only worship God at church on Sunday, but our labor throughout the week is an offering of worship and thanksgiving to the One who has given us everything we have. When people do not measure up to our expectations and we feel our efforts are being wasted, we must keep in mind that we are toiling for holy

God. He is worthy of our best effort.”

Just a reminder about Rockridge Children’s Camp on June 23rd-26th. You see information about it at the bottom of this page. This camp has touched many lives through the years and many children have accepted Christ during this special week. There are many camps and activities for your child to attend or participate in, but I cannot think of a better place or week that could make such an impact on your child’s life. I recently heard of a boy whose grandparents enrolled and paid for him to attend a boy scout camp. The boy became very upset because it was the same week as Rockridge. He wanted to be at Rockridge, and he is going to be there! That said it all to me! Plan now for your child, grandchild, friend, or neighbor to attend. The experience can be life changing.

Baptist Collegiate Ministries

Please be in prayer for all of our Georgia Baptist Collegiate Ministries Summer Missionaries going out this summer. Overall about 168 will be involved. Our students will be all over the world sharing the Gospel with the lost. Last summer with less than 3/4 of our summer missionaries reporting our students reached 49,767 people and saw 387 people receive Christ. That's exciting! Thank you for your financial support and prayers. Speaking of prayer— Please pray that our students will have an even more fruitful summer and that God would impact the world greatly through their efforts. I hope everybody has a blessed summer!

Dignity
Sunday

June 22

What is "Mission: Dignity"?

This day is set aside by the Southern Baptist Convention to remember the thousands of aged ministers and their widows who dedicated their lives to the Gospel ministry but are now facing their retirement years without the financial resources to meet their basic daily needs.

Your church can help to make life better for God's retired servants.

From The WMU

GIVE34 is a giving opportunity to support the Vision Fund of the WMU Foundation. One hour of life-changing WMU ministry cost $34.00. May 7 began a special commitment of GIVE34, 34 Days of GIVE34. During this time, supporters are asked to pray and learn more about how WMU ministries change people's lives. Ministries such as International Initiatives, Missionfest/ Familyfest, and Christian Women's Job Corps/Christian Men's Job Corps take the love of Christ to people who need it the most. The Vision Fund provides the essential funding for these incredible ministries.

Would you consider sponsoring one hour of WMU ministry? If $34 is small change to you, then sponsor several hours of ministry. If $34 is a stretch to your budget, then get your friends or mission group together to sponsor an hour. It takes nearly $300,000 to sponsor every hour of WMU ministry for one full year. You can make a difference by giving to support these ministries. Your gift to the Vision Fund, whether monetarily large or small, has enormous life-changing significance. When you give of your time, finances, and prayers to reach someone with Christ's love, you have fulfilled Jesus' command to love your neighbor as yourself. Give today and join the WMU Foundation and national WMU in living out the Great Commission through WMU ministries.

On June 9 in Baltimore at the WMU Annual Meeting/ Missions Celebration, a celebration will be held for the end of these 34 days with an ingathering of gifts to GIVE34 from all aver the United States.

You can contribute to GIVE34 anytime. Visit wmufoundation.com and discover ways you can personally sponsor your hour of ministry through the WMU Foundation.
