Reflections of Thanksgiving...

Psalm 136

O Give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.
O give thanks unto the God of gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.
O give thanks to the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.
To him who alone doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.
To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.
To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.
To him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever.
The sun to rule by day: for his mercy endureth for ever.
The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever.
Psalm 136:1-9

Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1863

It has seemed to me fit and proper that (the gifts of God) should be solemnly, reverently, and gratefully acknowledged with one heart and one voice by the whole American people. I do, therefore, invite my fellow citizens... To set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens. Abraham Lincoln

Thanksgiving

I'm thankful for the autumn mist,
A sunrise giving earth a kiss,
A spider's web all drenched with dew
That sparkles when the light shines through.

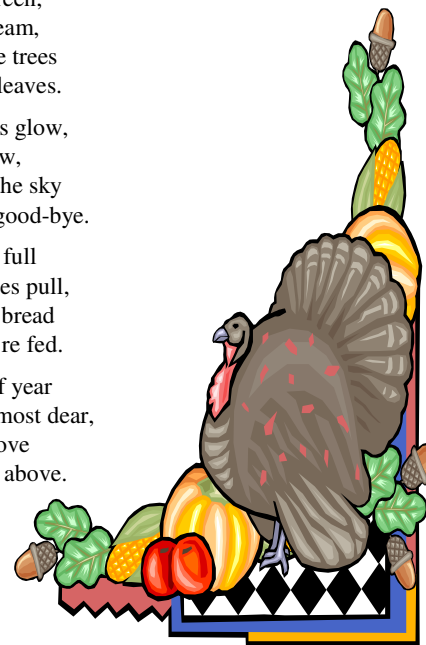

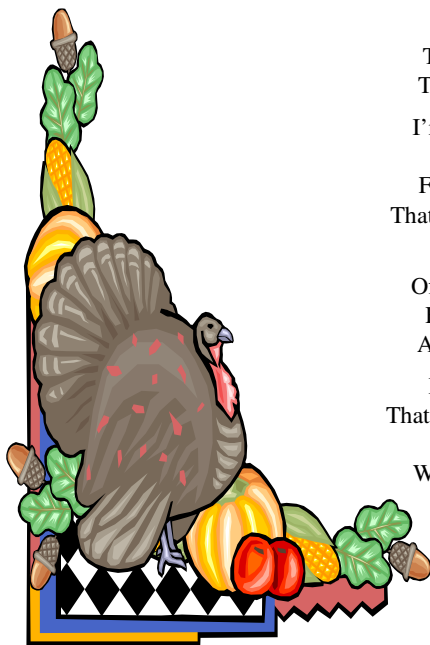

I'm thankful for a forest green,
The singing of a silver stream,
The red and orange of maple trees
That softly drop their dying leaves.

I'm thankful for the evening's glow,
A fire slowly burning low,
For patterned geese against the sky
That honk their brief and faint good-bye.

I'm thankful for a harvest full
Of fruit that on strong branches pull,
For grain to make our daily bread
And all the bounties that we're fed.

I'm thankful for this time of year
That we can share with friends most dear,
And for a Father full of love
Who showers blessings from above.

Baptist Collegiate Ministries

It's hard to believe that the Fall is almost over and Winter is just around the corner. We want to thank everyone who has supported us so far this semester with lunches and in our fundraisers. You are always generous with the food that you bring for our students. They appreciate it more than you know. For many of our students the meal you provide is the only home cooked meal they get during the week. Thank you so much for your dedication and care for our students! Please be in prayer for our students as the semester comes to a close. They always have a huge burden on them at the end of the semester. Many of them will be praying over the Holidays whether to apply for Summer Missions. Please pray that they would make a wise decision on how they will spend their summer.

God bless! Bill

From the WMU.....

It is always a wonderful experience to meet together for prayer. As we gathered at Bethsaida, women all around the world met together for prayer also. I would like to thank the ladies and Rev. Bryant for allowing us to meet at their church for the Women's World Day of Prayer. They were very gracious hosts.

Rev. Mark Williams shared a first-hand account of seeing the Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes being delivered while he was on a mission trip. The shoeboxes you will fill during the next few weeks can make a difference in a child's life. Thank you for your gifts that you send.

We will be collecting them at the associational office November 15-21.

Our week of Prayer for International Missions is November 28-December 5. Please pray for the missionaries featured in the Week of Prayer guide and use the prayer guides in your church and family devotions. Our prayers make a difference.

Our associational WMU Team is available to help anyone who would like to begin or restart a missions group. WMU, Women's Missionary Union, provides opportunities for missions education for all age-levels. WMU's work in a church is built around its six areas of Missions focus:

- Pray for missions
- Engage in mission action and witnessing
- Learn about missions
- Support missions (financial giving, supporting missionaries and families)
- Develop spiritually toward a missions lifestyle
- Participate in the work of the church and denomination.

I hope you will have a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday.

Thanks for supporting missions,
